

Concept Question 2-2: Does a system described by a linear differential equation qualify as LTI or just as linear?

It is just linear. Only if the coefficients are constants, so the system is described by a linear constant-coefficient differential equation (LCCDE), is the system LTI.