Concept Question 8-7: In DFT computation, why do we zero-pad the output to the next highest power of 2?

So that we can use the FFT, which is very fast for orders that are powers of 2.